

Take Care of Texas Kids Art Contest

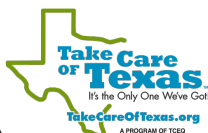

Sixteen students—and one lucky teacher—will win a tablet or laptop!

The TCEQ and The Texas Chemical Council invite K-5 students in Texas to submit their artwork showing how Texans can help keep our air and water clean, conserve water and energy, and reduce waste.

The contest begins January 6, 2020; entries must be postmarked on or before March 6, 2020.

Who: K-5 students in Texas

What: Students submit a unique piece of artwork portraying positive ways to Take Care of Texas. The artwork must be two-dimensional and submitted on an 8.5"x11" piece of paper (landscape format is recommended). It must include the slogan "Take Care of Texas. It's the only one we've got."

When: Contest opens on Jan. 3 and closes on March 1, 2020. Winners will be announced on April 15, 2020.

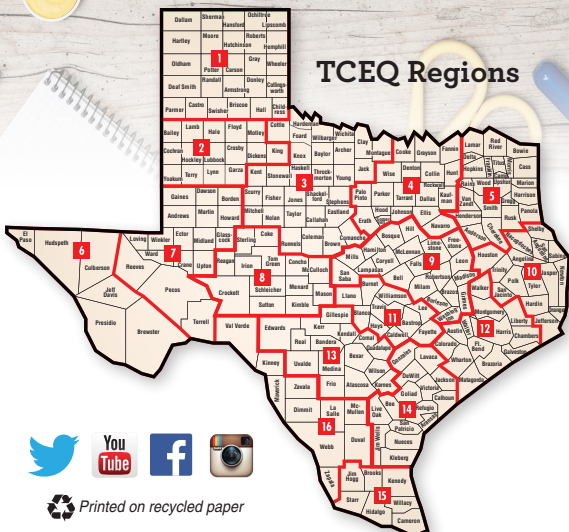

How: Participants submit their artwork to the TCEQ and each of the TCEQ's regional offices will select a winner. See the map for locations. Of those 16 winners, one will be selected as the grand-prize winner. Visit <TakeCareOfTexas.org/art-contest> for mailing instructions.

Why: Students have the opportunity to learn about ways to protect the environment and share their knowledge with others.

All winning designs will be showcased by Take Care of Texas and the TCEQ. The grand-prize winner will be recognized in Austin on May 13, 2020, at the TCEQ's Environmental Trade Fair and Conference.

PRIZES WILL BE PROVIDED BY THE TEXAS CHEMICAL COUNCIL.

- One student, chosen from the 16 regional winners, will receive the grand prize—a laptop.
- The remaining 15 regional winners will each receive a tablet.
- The teacher of the student who designs the overall best artwork will also be awarded a tablet.
